

City of Greensboro, Unifi named Duke “Power Partners”

Catherine Carlock

Reporter-The Business Journal

Unifi Inc. and the city of Greensboro have been named 2013 Power Partners by Duke Energy Corp., the Charlotte-based energy giant announced Thursday.

The Power Partner award recognizes large businesses that “achieve exemplary results in energy efficiency, sustainability and business growth,” Duke said in a news release.

Duke Energy (NYSE: DUK) also named Bissell in Charlotte and Capitol Broadcasting/American Tobacco Campus in Raleigh/Durham to the Power Partners list. Nationally, Wal-Mart Stores Inc. (NYSE: WMT) and Simon Property Group Inc. (NYSE: SPG) were recognized.

“This diverse group demonstrates that smart energy usage is achievable by organizations of all sizes, across many industries,” said Joni Davis, vice president of large account management at Duke Energy, in the release.